United States District Judge

1/ I read the two discovery letters. (D.I. 145; D.I. 146). I believe the better course is to conduct the deposition of the Rule 30(b)(6) witness—the Senior Vice President of Finance—and I will then be in a better position to evaluate everything, including the request for attorney's fees. I think, given the repeated disputes about the financial topics at issue, that the deposition should take place in my courtroom under the supervision of a judge. Thus, the parties are instructed to agree on a date for the deposition, assuming a 9 a.m. start, and to promptly advise the Court of the date. The parties are responsible for arranging a court reporter, including any videotaping. The presiding judge may ask questions, and the parties should provide the judge with a binder with any exhibits that may be shown to the witness.
